CHARLIE'S CORNER

Charlie's Corner is a curated selection of boutique wines, handpicked by one of our owners, a true wine enthusiast. Crafted for those who appreciate character, craftsmanship, and the stories behind each bottle, these hidden gems go beyond the ordinary. It's a personal touch that perfectly complements our Beyond Dining philosophy.

KARIBIB

Situated in the Polkadraai Hills, Stellenbosch, Karibib produces small-batch wines from old bush vines grown in ancient granite and dolomite soils. With a focus on minimal intervention and natural fermentation, the wines express the site's unique minerality and depth.

WELGEGUND

Welgegund Rosé is a milestone for Welgegund Heritage Wines — it's their first rosé under current ownership, born from dry-land, old bush vines of Cinsault, Carignan and Grenache Noir that form part of their certified heritage vineyards. Picked in the early morning, cooled and treated with gentle care, the fruit was given short skin contact to extract delicate aromatics, giving it a delicate seashell pink hue.

ROODEKRANTZ

Roodekrantz Wines is a heartfelt collaboration between the Morkel and Burger families, united by a shared commitment to preserving South Africa's rich viticultural heritage. Established in 2015, Roodekrantz focuses on rescuing and revitalizing old, dry-land bush vine vineyards that are often overlooked in large commercial blends. By working closely with dedicated growers, Roodekrantz ensures these ancient vines continue to thrive, producing wines that authentically express their unique terroirs.

NATIVO

Beyers Truter (founder of Beyerskloof) saw "Traildust" as a metaphor for the journey: the roads travelled, the relationships formed among people in the vineyard & winery, and the respect among everyone "from vineyard to glass." The "dust" of that journey, in his eyes, binds people together, perhaps more than family.
